Pending the availability of federal funding, the state of Montana will pay $37 per AP Exam for public and private school students qualifying for the $26 per exam College Board fee reduction.

• Federal Contribution (via Montana OPI)	$37
• College Board Contribution	$26
• Student/school Contribution $18	$18
• School Rebate (waived for low-income students)	$8
• Total Fee per Exam	$89

Note: Final AP Exam fee for qualifying students is $10

What the school must do:

Before the exams: On the AP Exam Ordering website, enter the total number of students who your school can attest fulfill the federal criteria to receive fee reductions for low-income students and the total number of exams they will take.

After the exams:

- Fill in the "Option 1" circle on qualifying students' AP Exam answer sheets.
- When generating your invoice online, enter the total number of exams taken by qualifying students.
- AP Coordinators must send $18 (Actually $10 after the School Rebate of $8) listed above to the AP Program for each exam taken by qualifying students.
- The College Board will bill the state directly for $37 per exam per qualifying student.
- AP Coordinators must submit a copy of their invoice to the state.
